Forecast For Grampian
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 0400 on Wednesday 26 May 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Some morning showers, drier and brighter in the afternoon.

Today:
Rather cloudy and a few showers in the morning, these mainly affecting Moray and North Aberdeenshire. Some sunshine developing in Deeside and the south later in the day. Rather cool especially in cloudier north. Maximum temperature 14 deg C (57 deg F).

Tonight:
A cloudy evening but a few clearer spells developing around Deeside later, light winds throughout and some mist and fog forming too. Minimum temperature 4 deg C (39 deg F).

Thursday:
Any cloud breaking up nicely and a sunny and bright day ahead. It will feel pleasantly warm in the light winds. Maximum temperature 18 deg C (64 deg F).

Outlook for Friday to Sunday:
A mostly dry, settled and much warmer few days with some sunshine and light winds.There will be coastal mist and low cloud, spreading inland by night. Windier later on Sunday.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.